

ESD Workers Donated to Gov. Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The defense today begins refuting charges that five employees of the state Employment Security Division solicited campaign funds for Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Eight ESD employees testified Tuesday that they gave from $25 to $50 to Faubus' campaign in last summer's Democratic primary election. All, however, said the donations were free and voluntary.

Five ESD officials are accused of violating the federal Hatch Act, which forbids political activity. ESD employees are under the law because they are paid partly with federal funds.

The five are William Watkins, 68; Charles F. Wood, 54; John Caras, 43; Robert O. Rainwater, 70; and Luke Arnett, 63.

Watkins, the only one of the five to testify Tuesday, said he collected some funds, but did not keep records of them. "I didn't keep any records, I didn't want any records," he said.

Several witnesses said their supervisors told them to turn over contributions to John Bull, John B. Bull, executive vice president of a life insurance company, took the stand later to tell of his fund collecting for Faubus.

Bull said he had received money from ESD employees, but couldn't fix dates or amounts. He said he collected money from a lot of people for Faubus. Bull said he turned over the money and slips of paper giving the donor's name to the governor.

John C. Milum of Batesville, Ford E. Toone of Jonesboro and Thomas D. Seay Sr. of Forrest City told of giving campaign donations to Watkins. Under cross examination Milum, now Batesville postmaster, said Watkins did not force him to contribute.

Watkins admitted receiving money from all three men, but said they had approached him with the idea of giving.

Ulys F. Coleman and Mrs. Frances H. Allen, both of Little Rock, told of conversations with Wood about contributions.

Walter Allen Jr. of Hot Springs testified that Caras had told him ESD employees were giving $50 each. Milton H. Higgs of Malvern said Caras told him where to make a contribution if he wanted to.

Joe T. Hirscheider of Little Rock testified that Rainwater told him of the contributions and that he gave the money to Arnett. Hirscheider said he had to borrow the $50.

One ESD employee, Paul Gardner of Russellville, said he refused to make a contribution even though he was contacted. Gardner said he is still employed by ESD.

A final decision in the case will not be made until after the record has been studied. Motions to dismiss the charges were denied Tuesday, but will be taken up by the Civil Service Commission again later.

Hopes for No More Racial Violence

By JACK ADAMS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy today expressed the hope that the United States will never again see the kind of racial violence which forced him to send a task force of U.S. marshals into Alabama.

In an address prepared for the 67th graduating exercises of the FBI National Academy, Kennedy said:

"We cannot expect that our problems and difficulties in connection with civil rights in the South will be solved without discord and disagreement. But we do have a right to expect that local law enforcement officers will do their jobs at all times; that they will preserve law and order."

Speaking to police officers from across the nation who have just completed the FBI's special training course, the attorney general developed the theme that the roots of justice lie in local law enforcement.

He has charged that police officials at Birmingham and Montgomery were less than diligent in anticipating the bloody mob violence which broke out when white and Negro "Freedom Riders" tried to test racial segregation practices on interstate bus facilities in Alabama.

Methodists May Oppose Bond Plan

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A report opposing Gov. Orval E. Faubus' proposed $60 million construction bond program will go to delegates of the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Church today.

Dr. William E. Brown, executive director of the Christian Civic Foundation, plans to outline the foundation's opposition to the 500 ministers and laymen attending the 108th annual session of the conference.

Foundation opposition stems from

Union Okays Hospital Bonds

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Union County residents Tuesday gave overwhelming approval to a $1.4 million bond issue to aid in the construction of a county hospital.

The vote was 7,331 in favor of the bond issue and 1,416 opposed. Bonds would be retired by a 2½-cent mill tax.

An additional $770,000 in federal Hill-Burton funds will be sought for the hospital construction.

Hill-Burton funds also will be sought in the expansion of Warner Brown Hospital a Roman Catholic facility at El Dorado.

Officials have said the Sisters of Mercy, the order which operates Warner Brown, will provide some of the money for the expansion.

Plans for expanding Warner Brown Hospital were disclosed five days before the bond issue election.

Fly-in Group Awaited by Jackson Jail

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Police in Jackson, Miss., today awaited Mississippi's first "Freedom Fly-in" while the jails filled with "Freedom Riders" and more were expected.

No matter how they come, if they are found guilty of disturbing the peace, they can expect stricter jail sentences and fines.

A spokesman for the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) announced in St. Louis that three Negroes would fly from there to Jackson today to test segregation policies.

Charles R. Oldham, national chairman of CORE, said the purpose of the trip was "to test air port terminal facilities at Jackson to see whether interstate travelers are afforded the same accommodations as everyone else."

At Washington, a CORE spokesman said seven Negro and two white students from that area would fly to New Orleans today and within a few days take a bus to Jackson and join the movement along with other Freedom Riders.

Seven Freedom Riders took a bus from New Orleans to Jackson Tuesday and quickly landed in jail after conviction of breach of peace charges in the Mississippi capital city.

The group of five whites and two Negroes hoisted to 72 the total jailed in the past two weeks in Jackson—all convicted of the same charge.

But the seven riders Tuesday drew heavier penalties. A city judge sentenced them to four months in jail, with two months suspended, and fined each $200.

Earlier riders drew suspended sentences of two months each and were fined $200.

Judge James Spencer said he felt the full penalty of four months in jail and $200 fine should be set in future cases.

Freedom Riders claim their purpose is to test segregation policies at terminals for interstate travelers.

Police said the question of segregation does not enter into the charges. They say the mere presence of the riders in depots or terminals is an occasion of breach of peace.

Beebe Okays Bonds

BEEBE, Ark. (AP) — Bond issues totaling $225,000 for an industrial plant were approved 332 to 1 by Beebe residents Tuesday.

The issues would provide $170,000 to construct a garment factory and $50,000 to finance a training program.

About 200 persons, mostly women, would be employed at the plant.

Texarkana Police Chief Is Acquitted

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A Miller County Grand jury Tuesday declined to indict Texarkana Police Chief Max Tackett in connection with the alleged pistol-whipping of Bill Flattie, 42, last March.

The jury cited what it called extenuating circumstances in returning the no-trial bill.

Tackett testified at a recent Civil Service Commission hearing that Flattie, an ex-convict, had threatened his life. The officer admitted entering Flattie's office and pistol-whipping him.

The Civil Service Commission cleared Tackett in the incident.

A charge of aggravated assault against Tackett was dropped by Municipal Court and the case was referred to the grand jury.

Eight Suffer From Motor Boat Fire

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Eight persons, six of them children, remain hospitalized after the 21-foot motorboat on which they were riding caught fire and sank in Lake Hamilton, near here, Tuesday.

In critical condition with burns are Billy Stover, 10, Jimmy Stover, 7, and Kathy Feltz, 6.

Less seriously burned were Joe Feltz, 19, Jeanie Feltz, 13, Micki Stover, 8, Mrs. Virginia Feltz, 41, and W. T. Stover, 58.

Mrs. Feltz is the mother of the three injured Feltz youngsters and Stover is the grandfather of the injured Stover children. The Feltzs live in North Little Rock, the Stovers in Little Rock.

Authorities said the boat, owned by Stover, suddenly burst into flame as he piloted it away from a dock. It sank moments later in about eight feet of water. Cause of the fire was not immediately known.

The eight jumped from the burning vessel and were pulled to safety by occupants of nearby boats who went to their aid.

Castro Clears Way for Talks on Exchange

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — The hour for action approached today in the offer to give tractors to Cuba's Prime Minister Fidel Castro in exchange for invasion prisoners.

Castro cleared the way in part Tuesday night by accepting the proposition in principle, though stipulating negotiations.

The prime minister's action, announced on the Havana radio, came approximately 12 hours before today's noon deadline given him for his reply. It followed a meeting of the Cuban Council of Ministers.

Castro also cabled the citizens "tractors for freedom committee" here. The contents of the cable, in Spanish, were not made public by the committee, pending a translation.

The citizens group, headed by Eleanor Roosevelt, President Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers, and Dr. Milton Eisenhower, educator and brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, has offered to exchange 500 American tractors for 1,200 prisoners taken in the Cuban invasion attempt.

The Cuban government, in the radio announcement, thanked the committee for its "humanitarian act."

A language expert was called in by Solidarity House, UAW headquarters which is also committee headquarters, to translate Castro's message, addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, Reuther, Dr. Eisenhower, and Detroit banker Joseph M. Dodge, treasurer of the committee. The four had cabled him last week.

A committee spokesman, after contacting Reuther in New York, said the committee would withhold comment until the cable was translated and a conference held.

At Havana, Castro stipulated that a delegation of the committee go to Cuba to negotiate with him. He suggested Mrs. Roosevelt or Dr. Eisenhower.

The Castro announcement on the Havana radio broadcast monitored in Key West, Fla., said the delegation would discuss not only details of the indemnification but also the number of prisoners to be involved in the exchange.

Canada Irked Over Grain to China Deal

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker was expected to take grave issue with the United States today for blocking shipment by tanker of some Canadian grain sold to Red China.

One informant said Diefenbaker would have "quite a story" to tell Parliament concerning charges the U.S. Treasury has refused to allow an Illinois company to supply portable equipment needed to unload grain-laden tankers in Communist Chinese ports.

The equipment is reported made only in the United States. The U.S. action would not affect shipment of most of the Canadian grain. Freighters are used for the most part and Chinese ports have adequate dockside facilities to unload them.

Because Chinese ports have no facilities for unloading grain from tankers, those vessels must carry their own unloading devices—units which cost about $12,000 each.

The traveler asked that his name not be used because he fears reprisals against his mother and a sister still in Cuba.

Ceasefire Violated in Laos by Red Rebels, U.S. Blames Russia

Kennedy Says Neither Side Gained a Thing

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says neither he nor Soviet Premier Khrushchev won a victory over the other at Vienna, but chances of war should be less now that each leader knows better where the other stands.

Kennedy reported this to the American people Tuesday night in a 2-minute radio-TV speech in which he talked "candidly and publicly" about "a very sober two days" with Khrushchev.

In balance, the President found his first personal meeting with the Soviet leader "immensely useful"—even though, he said, a result was to expose more clearly the prospects of a long-term struggle between East and West.

On specific cold war issues, Kennedy said some hope that his Vienna encounter would break the deadlock at the Geneva conference on Laos over Soviet refusal to grant cease-fire inspectors freedom to check violators.

But he said Khrushchev struck a "serious blow" at the lengthy Geneva talks on a ban on atomic tests. He hinted that the United States, while not abandoning the talks, might soon feel free to resume testing.

"Our most sober talks," Kennedy added, were on Berlin, where Khrushchev wants to boot out the Western allies. Kennedy said he made clear America is determined to maintain its rights there "at any risk."

To any who might suspect secret deals, Kennedy added in reporting on his overseas trip: "No advantage or concession was either planned or taken. No new aims were stated in private that have not been stated in public on either side."

"Generally, Mr. Khrushchev did not talk in terms of war," Kennedy said. "He believes the world will move his way without resort to force. Most of all he predicted the triumph of communism in the new and less developed countries."

Denying this inevitability of the Communist victory, Kennedy appealed for national support of his $4.8-billion program of foreign aid for the coming year, much of which is earmarked for newly developing lands. "We have no more crucial obligation now," he said.

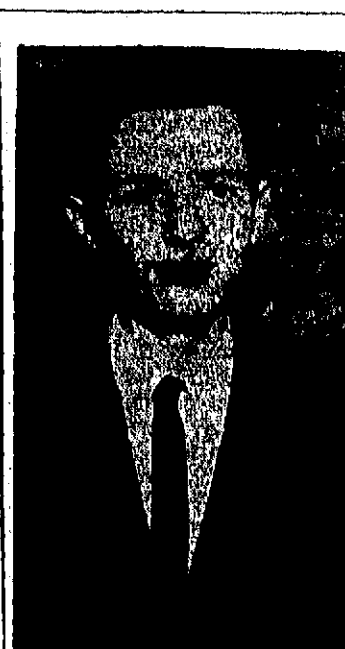

The youthful President spoke earnestly and somberly and partly without text as he recounted the high spots of his 9,120-mile week's trip to Europe from which he returned Tuesday morning.

During the afternoon, before going on the air at 7 p.m. EDT, he spent 1½ hours briefing congressional leaders at the White House.

He was most enthusiastic over his stops at Paris and London. There, he said, he accomplished his goal—"to strengthen the unity of the West."

During his May 31-June 2 visit with French President Charles de Gaulle, Kennedy said, "certain doubts and suspicions were removed on both sides."

Morrilton Goes Against City Manager

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — A record number of Morrilton voters Tuesday defeated a proposal to change the form of government to the city manager plan.

The vote was 1,336 against a switch from the present mayor-alderman type government and 810 in favor.

Previous record vote for a Morrilton city election was 1,500 several years ago.

Residents are scheduled to vote in a primary election next month to select Democratic candidates for mayor and aldermen.

The city manager proposal was the object of a heated campaign. Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon told a rally Monday night that the city was too small for such a government setup. And he charged that the city manager form is undemocratic because it takes away the right of the people to vote in their government.

Circuit Judge Audrey Strait on Saturday ordered a new slate of election officials prepared, saying that while the original list was legally prepared some of the listlessness of the campaign might be eliminated by new officials.

U. S. Against Withdrawal From Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States said today it will not bring about a collapse of the Geneva conference on Laos, but will push at the conference for a cease-fire in the Asian kingdom.

"The violators of the cease-fire are sitting right there in Geneva," a State Department spokesman said. He referred to the Communist side at the conference, which includes Russia and Red China.

U.S. withdrawal from the 14-nation conference had slipped up as a possibility earlier following the fall of the royal Lao government position of Padong to pro-Communist rebel forces.

State Department press officer Lincoln White charged this was a violation of the cease-fire agreement which the United States had insisted on before going to the Geneva parley.

Today's Geneva meeting was called off while delegates checked their capitals for instructions.

White, outlining the U.S. view, told newsmen: "If you are asking me whether the United States, through any obstructive talks or otherwise, is going to bring about a collapse of the Geneva conference, the answer is no."

"The United States," he continued, "is going forward with the objectives first announced by the king of Laos some months ago."

These U.S.-supported objectives are for a neutral Laos without as White restated it, "external interference from any quarter."

Newsman had been given to understand earlier that U.S. withdrawal from the Geneva conference was under consideration.

"We are aware of recent serious developments, including the fall of Padong, and our experts are now consulting," State Department press officer Joseph W. Reap told a news conference.

Reap was asked about news dispatches from Geneva saying that Western delegations, angered by the violations of the cease-fire, had called their capitals for new instructions and to find out whether there is any point in continuing the conference.

Reap would not acknowledge that such a cable had reached the department. Other officials said the U.S. delegation is sending a great number of cables, but they could not confirm that any of them advised leaving the Geneva conference table.

Nevertheless, high ranking officials said, the State Department considers the fall of Padong an unmistakable sign of Communist bad faith and a deliberate, unconcealed flouting of the cease-fire agreement.

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Padong fell today under an all-out assault by pro-Communist rebels supported by heavy artillery. The tiny mountain village had been a symbol of government resistance—and of rebel violation of the cease-fire proclaimed five weeks ago.

U. S. Troops in Korea Alerted

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Special alert restrictions, put on U.S. troops May 16 after the South Korean military coup, were lifted today.

American forces in Korea had been forbidden to leave their camps except on official business since the military uprising.

from the fact that part of the money to retire the issue would come from revenues of 12 additional days of horse racing at Hot Springs' Oaklawn Park.

The church's North Arkansas Conference, meeting in Russellville last week, heard the foundation report without comment.

A conference speaker told delegates Tuesday night that the church has kept alive the thinking of mankind "despite the pressures of materialism."

"In the dark of human history caused by the Dark Ages, the church salvaged enough to build a new foundation to give the human race another chance," Bishop Arthur J. Moore of Atlanta, Ga., said.

Bishop Moore, now retired, is the conference preacher.

The five-day gathering will end Friday with the reading of new pastoral assignments.

ing lands and jobs to the 1,200 men captured in the April 17 invasion and "visits them every day."

Among the U.S. citizens arriving here were 45 Roman Catholic nuns, all natives of Puerto Rico. Most of the Americans had in Cuba for many years.

They reported a feverish wave of anti-American feeling in Cuba since the invasion.

Mathias Morales, 70, and his wife, Lila, 68, said Cubans paraded around their home chanting "Yankee go home." The retired couple had moved to Havana from Key West, Fla., because their income went farther in Cuba.

Morales said he probably would go to Tampa, Fla., where he taught school for many years, but had no immediate plans for the future.

Among the other arrivals was Nello Lugo, 30, who said he took part in the invasion and escaped capture by making his way into the underground. Officials of an embassy in Havana secured a safe-conduct permit that got him out of the country, he said.

The ruling specifically dealt with Junius Irving Seales, a former chairman of the Communist party's district in the Carolinas. He has said he is no longer a member of the party.

Scion of a well-known North Carolina family, Seales was sentenced to six years imprisonment after his second conviction under the Smith Act's membership clause.

The party and membership in Arkansas are prohibited by Act 15 of 1961, one of many laws passed by the 1961 Arkansas General Assembly which go into effect at midnight, 60 days after the conclusion of the legislative session.

Other acts which will become law at midnight include measures to:

Make it illegal for a child 12 years of age or younger to operate a motorboat by himself, require a parent or guardian to accompany a girl less than 18 years of age to a night club and make mandatory a 10-day jail sentence for persons caught operating motor vehicles when their drivers licenses are suspended.

Still other acts which will become law include ones to:

Make it a jailable offense to carry a knife with a blade 3 1/2 inches or longer, authorize the state to sell local industrial development bonds it holds, provide for the donation of eyes after death and permit cities and counties to build and operate nursing homes.

Redistricting to Go to People

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sponsors of a movement to get a popular vote on the 1961 Congressional redistricting act filed their first referral petitions with Secretary of State Nancy Hall today.

If the measure is placed on the November, 1962, general election ballot, all candidates for national House seats will have to run at large.

The law which reduced the state's House positions from six to four and reshuffled the districts because of a population loss would be held in abeyance pending outcome of the popular vote.

Bakers of the referendum claim more than 30,000 signatures. A total of 25,319 is needed.

Court Keeps Teeth in Law Against Reds

BY PAUL M. YOST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dividing 5 to 4 in two historic decisions, the Supreme Court has upheld two of the government's major weapons against Communist party activity in the United States.

The decision backed the tightest U.S. restrictions ever aimed at a group which purports to be a political organization.

The court Monday upheld:

1. A clause in the Smith Act which makes it a crime for a person to belong to any organization knowing that it advocates violent overthrow of the government.

2. A requirement that the Communist party register with the U.S. attorney general as a puppet of the Kremlin. This requirement is a part of the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act.

The Justice Department declined comment on the rulings.

Gus Hall, U.S. Communist party general secretary, said in New York the decisions endanger "the very foundation and fabric of democracy in our country."

The party vowed to fight the decisions, but didn't say how.

Writing the majority opinion upholding the government efforts to force the Communist party to register as an arm of the Soviet Union, Justice Felix Frankfurter swept aside the party's arguments that its rights under the First Amendment of the Constitution were being violated.

If the high court agreed, Frankfurter said in his 39,000-word opinion, it would "make a travesty of that amendment and for the well-being of our democracy that it serves."

The First Amendment guarantees freedom of speech and the right of peaceful assembly.

Justice John M. Harlan wrote the majority opinion in the court's approval of the "knowing membership" clause of the 1940 Smith Act. He pointed out the court held the membership "must be active, and not nominal, passive or theoretical."

The ruling specifically dealt with Junius Irving Seales, a former chairman of the Communist party's district in the Carolinas. He has said he is no longer a member of the party.

Scion of a well-known North Carolina family, Seales was sentenced to six years imprisonment after his second conviction under the Smith Act's membership clause.

Other matters might also be taken up at the special session. Van Dalsem said, after dealing with affairs for which the lawmakers were called back into session.

"We could pass a new redistricting bill with an emergency clause," he remarked.

A campaign is under way to refer the 1961 redistricting act to a popular vote at the 1962 general election.

Leaders of a group backing the referral campaign have until June 8 to file petitions containing more than 25,000 signatures with the secretary of state's office.

The redistricting act, as passed by the 1961 legislature, did not contain an emergency clause.

If the referral campaign is successful, the act could not take effect pending the outcome of the Nov. 1962 general election and the state's representatives would have to run at large in the general election.

The party and membership in Arkansas are prohibited by Act 15 of 1961, one of many laws passed by the 1961 Arkansas General Assembly which go into effect at midnight, 60 days after the conclusion of the legislative session.

Got the Lowdown on Making Money

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—A bellhop's scheme to get small donations out of famous people so he could go to college ended in plenty of advice, no money and a night in jail.

Larry D. Cook, 19, was picked up so police could investigate the letters he sent to names he had copied out of a library copy of "Who's Who in America."

Mrs. J. W. Albright, Gettysburg, Pa., wrote to Lafayette police, asking them to check Cook's record to see whether he was worthy of college help.

The youth said he had sent out 800 letters asking "Could you please help me by donating a dollar or two? Please help me become a teacher."

Capt. James F. Washburn, chief of detectives, and Postmaster Albert Pyke finally agreed they couldn't find any postal violation in the letters and released Cook.

Can't Judge JFK Yet on Foreign Plan

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is doing well in the field he knows best—politics and Congress. But he can't be judged yet on his ability in foreign affairs, an area in which he has had the least experience.

His domestic proposals so far have received very agreeable treatment in Congress where Republicans and conservative Democrats could do him damage any time they wanted to team up.

Kennedy has handled Congress in just about the way his vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, might have been expected to operate if he had been the president.

Johnson, when he was leader of the Senate Democrats, followed a very moderate course in the legislation he sought to get through. Kennedy has done the same. Both men avoid personal quarrels and work hard behind the scenes.

In all ways except the last they operate much as former President Eisenhower did. His behind-the-scenes work was not as expert as theirs, but then he seemed to have an inclination to keep hands off Congress.

But it is in the foreign field that Kennedy is still a rather unknown quantity.

His meetings these past few days with French President De Gaulle in Paris and Soviet Premier Khrushchev in Vienna didn't reveal much except that Kennedy and De Gaulle seemed to get along well and Kennedy's relations with Khrushchev appeared amiable.

Perhaps the fact that Kennedy got a chance to size up De Gaulle and Khrushchev at first hand, and they him, will help their future relations. This may have been the main accomplishment of his journey.

The three men seem to have settled nothing—judging by the communiques issued after the Paris and Vienna meetings—but, since they weren't expected to, there can be no disappointment in this.

The Kennedy-De Gaulle communique said they agreed on defending Berlin against a Communist effort to isolate it or take it over. But they were agreed on that before hand—it was American-French policy.

The Kennedy-Khrushchev communique was just a little different—if a difference can be read into it.

This said that, while the two men discussed a number of problems, they "reaffirmed their support" for a neutral Laotian government and "recognized the importance of an effective ceasefire."

This could mean—but don't bet

Some Folks Want to Make Trip to Moon

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Some folks are anxiously looking forward to making a round trip to the moon as soon as they put in tourist rates.

Others of us stubbornly like to recall the flavor of life as it used to be. We enjoy getting together and playing the "old memory game."

For example, can you remember when—
You could get a teen-ager to baby sit all evening for 50 cents and a plate of fudge.

Half the dogs in town were Tighe, Buck or Prince, and they lived out their lives without ever being taken to an "animal doctor." The vets made a living then on it—that the two sides will now work out some agreement for bringing peace to the Southeastern Asian country where the Russian-backed rebels have taken over most of the territory.

Otherwise the communique was skimpy on information. This gap was filled in a bit by so-called "thoroughly qualified diplomatic sources" which, translated into everyday English, must mean American officials authorized by Kennedy to give reporters more information than the communique contained.

It can be boiled down to this: They talked about a number of things, got each other's views, which they already knew anyway, and left the question of settlement, if any, to the future.

From now on—as Congress draws closer to winding up its business—Kennedy will be drawn deeper into foreign affairs where the decisions he makes will provide a realistic yardstick for judging him.

Rioters Are Warned by Ga. Governor

ATLANTA (AP)—Rabble rousers, would-be rioters and the like have been warned by Gov. Ernest Vandiver against trying to stir up trouble when four Atlanta public high schools are integrated next fall.

Vandiver said Monday that although he was dead set against integration, "anytime the life or property of any citizen is endangered whatever forces that are necessary to preserve the peace will be used."

The Atlanta Board of Education has approved transfers of 10 Negroes in the 11th and 12th grades to white schools. The desegregation was ordered by a federal judge.

"Unless the state of Georgia wants to secede from the United States and fire on Ft. McPherson, we'll have to obey that court order," Vandiver told a news conference.

DOROTHY DIX

She Will Pray For Me!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: In saying a child should not be whipped, you ignore certain Scriptural passages. Do you choose to obey only the sections of the Bible with which you agree?

My mother was the most gentle person alive but I had spankings until I was 13 and was helped by every one of them. I'll pray for you.—Mrs. Martin Belver, Anderson, Ind.

Dear Mrs. Belver: I would no more whip a child than I would whip my little dachshund Christopher. Were I to hit him his trust in me would be destroyed.

And so it is with children. A whip and pistol are used to tame wild animals but thoroughbreds are disciplined by kindness. As my former husband, the late John Erskine said, "With blooded animals the whip is out. Patience and companionship take its place."

As a teacher, he dealt with young people all his life. There was never insubordination in his classes.

Dear Helen: You said in a recent column that a boy of 20 could not find happiness in marriage to a woman of 35. I think it's up to the individual. I knew a boy of 25 who married a woman 14 years older than he. They lived happily together until her death 13 years later.—A Friend

Dear Friend: There are exceptions to every rule, of course. A man of 25 is far more likely to know what he is doing (at least, I hope so) than a boy of 20. But the risk is still there. Were the situation reversed—the woman 25 and the man 30, it would be entirely different. My first husband was 17 years older than I; my second is 15 years older. I was and am extremely happy.

Dear Helen: Can love turn to hate for no apparent reason? I am 24, my husband 27. We have no children. Until our marriage two years ago we were sure of our love and dated regularly for four years. There is no other woman or man; we have no in-law trouble and, for the most part, like the same things. Our only disagreement has been about money. He thinks I'm too tight. I wanted only to save for our future. He resents my being around him and won't even talk with me. His family helps financially. This he resents, too. He is disturbed about a lot of things which divorce won't help. I love him very much but there more heartache in being with him than apart?—Rejected

Dear Rejected: Indeed there are! The fact that your husband is "disturbed about a lot of things" suggest that he is under tension. Try to persuade him to discuss these things with a clergyman he trusts, a doctor, a psychologist or a psychiatrist.

Don't make an issue of it; suggest such steps firmly but gently. And until he is ready to seek personal guidance, give him all the love and attention you can

Stevenson Still in South America

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson heads for Argentina today after a 48-hour visit to Venezuela's capital, first stop on his presidential mission to Latin America.

Although no agreements were sought on concrete problems, Stevenson made known he was pleased with the results.

For one thing, he was reported reassured by President Romulo Betancourt's continued firm stand against dictatorships in Latin America, of both the left and right complexion.

The chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations also was gratified by the warm personal reception he received in the city which displayed violently anti-U.S. feelings to Vice President Richard M. Nixon three years ago.

Stevenson will see Argentine President Arturo Frondizi Wednesday. No special difficulties are anticipated in Argentina since relations between the United States and the Frondizi government are extremely cordial.

TVA Dam Has Break and Big Problem

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — A break in a lock in a TVA dam poses a major problem to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration: How will the huge Saturn space booster be transported to Cape Canaveral, Fla.?

The booster is scheduled to be launched in Florida later this year. A barge was built especially to haul it to Cape Canaveral from Redstone Arsenal.

The barge is at Redstone Arsenal—above the damaged link in the Tennessee River navigation system.

Huge concrete sections in the lock at Wheeler Dam shifted Friday night. Traffic cannot go through the lock until repairs are made. TVA said it may take many months.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration had planned to ship the Saturn down the Tennessee, Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

The Marshall Space Flight center said it hopes to present a practical solution to NASA headquarters in Washington by Tuesday.

A NASA spokesman said, "There are only three ways to transport the Saturn—by land, water or air. It's to big to fly, and we can't move it on the roads all the way to Florida. And we certainly don't intend to launch it here."

The source said the Saturn, 22 feet in diameter and 75 feet long, apparently will have to be moved on highways from Huntsville to a point below the damaged lock before it can be loaded.

However, a number of possible barriers to this plan are being considered — such as overhead structures and bridges.

The damaged lock is approximately 50 nautical miles from Huntsville. The distance to a practical loading point over roads would be much greater.

Won't Attend Graduation

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A mother who has sons graduating at two service academies but won't attend either graduation, leaves her today for her home in Ohio.

Jeanette Stackhouse of Norwood Ohio, spent several days here with her son, Charles, 21, who will be graduated from the Naval Academy Wednesday. Last week she had spent several days with another son, Bill, 22, who will be graduated from the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., also on Wednesday.

Rather than show partiality by being at one exercise and not the other, Mrs. Stackhouse decided not to attend either.

Inflation Fears Seen by Advisers

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top White House advisers say there is rising concern in the Kennedy administration over the threat that business recovery will revive inflation.

There is no thought of resorting to direct price or wage controls barring "a wartime situation," said Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

But Heller added: "We will have to exercise self-restraint to a degree perhaps never known before."

Three administration leaders—Heller, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, and Walt Whitman Rostow, special assistant to the President—stressed the renewed threat of advancing prices in addresses to the Advertising Council Monday.

The council's an organization of national advertisers and advertising agencies which donate millions of dollars worth of free advertising each year to campaigns in the public interest.

Heller told the advertisers the vigor of the business upturn should lift national output to a record $530 billion yearly rate by the end of 1961—a 5 per cent gain from the first quarter—and should generate enough tax revenues to give government a budget surplus in fiscal 1963.

But he and other officials stressed that a resumption of living cost increases may be a by-product of prosperity unless unions settle for moderate wage advances and management holds prices in check.

"As we go into the new wage negotiations, the question is whether we will negotiate our way into inflation or whether we can exercise discipline without wage and price controls," said Rostow.

Heller disclosed that the problem is currently before the President's Labor-Management Advisory Committee. The administration is hoping the committee of labor, industry and public representatives can lay out guidelines for wages and prices in major industries like steel and autos.

Cites Need for Power to Fight Crime

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy told the Senate Judiciary Committee today federal authorities urgently need additional powers to deal with organized crime.

Appearing before the committee to urge enactment of the half-dozen proposals which he has submitted, put heavy stress on two.

One would provide penalties up to $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment for interstate travel in furtherance of racketeering activities involving gambling, liquor, narcotics, prostitution, extortion and bribery.

The other would broaden the present ban on interstate shipment of slot machines to include pinball machines.

Kennedy, who said that gambling activity provides the basis financing of most organized crime and racketeering, cited a racewired situation involving New Orleans, La., and Hot Springs, Ark., and a Virginia-District of Columbia numbers racket as examples of the need for the interstate travel law he is seeking.

A grand jury is looking into evidence obtained in a raid last month in Loudoun County, Va., which brought to a halt two of the largest numbers operations ever uncovered in the State of Virginia, he said.

He told the committee the Justice Department had knowledge of a situation which developed in Hot Springs, Ark., last year when Louisiana racketeers traveled to Hot Springs in an attempt to move in on the racewired service there.

SUSPENSE

A Short Short Story

The two men, Gabriel and Nestor, sat in a room furnished expensively for a professional office. It was the office of a psychiatrist.

It was a deeply carpeted room conservative in its color and decorations, restful, yet professional.

Gabriel and Nestor sat at right angles to one another one of them taking notes, the other doing the talking. This is the manner in which the psychiatrist interviews his patient.

"Let's find a basic approach to reality," said Nestor. "Once your feet are on the ground you can orient yourself."

Gabriel sighed. "Reality is all around us," he said quietly.

Nestor beamed encouragement. "Right. Now we're getting someplace." He smiled, as tensions eased. He'd been working about this interview.

"Let's start with this room. It is real. We agree on that much, do we not?"

Gabriel's anxious eyes swept the room. He looked at the restful atmosphere, the thick carpet, the expensive furniture.

"Why, yes. The room obviously is real. And so are we. We are living, breathing human beings inhabiting it temporarily."

Nestor almost applauded. "We have reached common ground at last! We agree on something. We are here together—now we must determine which of our thoughts have to do with reality. Your thoughts are real, of course no matter how fantastic they seem, but they are not related to outside reality. We can think things that aren't true—"

"Aren't you a little confused on this point?" Gabriel asked.

Nestor's eyes clouded. Before this question, he had been much encouraged for a moment or two. Gabriel had seemed to be making progress. Now Gabriel seemed to be getting off the track again. He wasn't putting things in their proper orbit, where they should be. Nestor must double back and lead Gabriel back to the proper path.

"Oh, no," said Nestor. "You're"

Mrs. Gable, born a Catholic but later estranged through divorce and remarriage, has been attending St. Cyril's since the death of Gable from a heart attack last Nov. 16. The son, Gables first offspring, was born March 20.

Loper, famed designer of movie-land fashions, was a longtime friend of Clark and his beautiful blonde widow, Kay.

"Indeed, I did not," said Gabriel.

Nestor squinted through his glasses at the man. "I certainly didn't bring you here. I don't send strong armed men to bring me patients."

"No," said Gabriel. "You must bring me."

"Then, why are you here? Tell me sir?"

"I'm here," said Gabriel "because I'm the doctor and you're the patient."

"I'm here," said Gabriel "because I'm the doctor and you're the patient."

"I'm here," said Gabriel "because I'm the doctor and you're the patient."

"I'm here," said Gabriel "because I'm the doctor and you're the patient."

confused. I want to help you, and you should try to help me. I'm the doctor and you are the patient. By helping me, I learn to treat others who have the same trouble you have."

"That is the point of confusion," said Gabriel quietly.

Nestor frowned. "I see nothing that should bother you there. You need psychiatric treatment."

"I don't think I do," said Gabriel.

Indians Climb Into First in the Amercian

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians took first place by .006 percentage points in the American League race with their eighth straight victory Tuesday night, whipping Washington 14-3 with 16 hits, including two homers by Johnny Romano.

The Chicago White Sox spilled Detroit to second place, beating the Tigers 7-1.

New York defeated Minnesota 7-2, the Twins' 12th straight loss. Baltimore split a two-night pair with Los Angeles, losing 3-3 before Chuck Estrada beat the Angels 2-0 with a two-hitter in the nightcap. Boston defeated Kansas City 5-3.

In the National League, Cincinnati clung to first by a half game by beating Milwaukee 7-3. Second-place Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 8-7 and Philadelphia snapped their place San Francisco 13-9. St. Louis defeated Chicago's Cubs 6-2 in the first game of a two-night pair, but the nightcap, called because of curfew, ended in a 3-3, 10-inning tie.

The Indians turned a close game into a runaway with a seven-run sixth inning at Washington that beat rookie Joe McClain (5-4). They sent 11 men to bat in the seventh, getting the runs on Jim Piersall's triple, a double by Willie Kirkland, three singles, two walks and an error. Vic Power's solo homer had given Cleveland a 1-1 tie in the fourth inning.

Gary Bell (4-4) was the winner with a three-inning mop-up by Bob Allen. Tribe relievers have been in on all but one decision in the eight-game streak and have locked up 15 of Cleveland's last 20 victories.

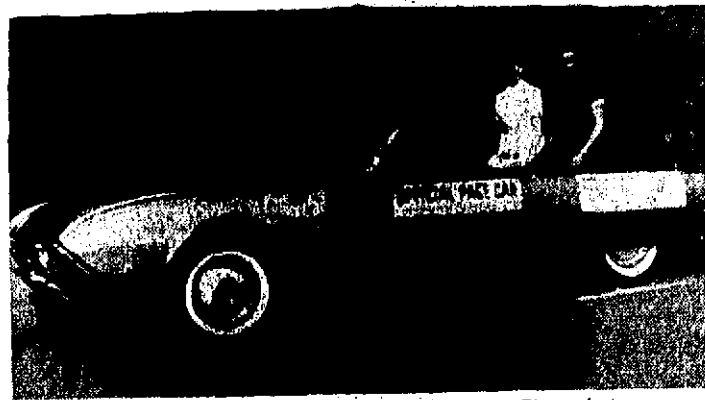

The White Sox winning two in a row for the first time in almost three weeks, tripped the Tigers behind the fine relief of Turk Lown. The right-handed veteran replaced starter Early Wynn with a run in three and one out in the fourth inning. He retired loser Jim Bunning (4-5) on a foul pop and fanned Jake Wood, then blanked Detroit on three hits for his third straight victory in five decisions.

Southpaws Whitey Ford (9-2) and Luis Arroyo combined for a three-hitter against the Twins, who were shut out on one hit for 6-13 innings. Roger Maris drove in four runs for the Yanks and regained the AL home run lead with his 16th, a three-run shot. Jack Kralick (4-4) was the loser as the Twins plunged into ninth place with their 17th loss in 18 games. They played under coach Sam Mele, after club owner Cal Griffith called manager Cookie Lavagetto home for a week's vacation.

Chuck Estrada (3-4) an 18-game winner a year ago, pitched his first complete game of the season while blanking the Angels on two singles. He struck out 12, but walked six. The Orioles broke up a shutout duel with Ken McBride (5-3) with a run in the fifth on Whitey Herzog's single. Los Angeles wrapped up the opener in two innings on two homers—Ken Hunt's three-run shot and a grand slam by Leroy Thomas—off Milt Pappas (1-3). Eli Grba (5-4) was the winner.

Macon Again Slams the Travelers

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas City may have a hometown boy down on its Shreveport farm who will someday give American League fans the sort of thrill they get from watching switch-hitting Mickey Mantle.

Alex George homered in the third inning last night batting right-handed against Birmingham southpaw Johnny Seale, then hit another from the other side of the plate in the sixth off Baron reliever Jerry Lock. The clouds helped the Sports team the Barons 6-2 for their sixth victory over Birmingham in eight meetings this season.

The loss dropped Birmingham into third place in the Southern Association standings behind the Atlanta Crackers, who were rained out at Chattanooga. Macon trounced Little Rock 13-2 with fancy slugging by Bill Gabler and Lou Skizas, and Mobile shaded the Nashville Vols 7-6.

A two-run homer by Vic Wertz capped a seventh-inning rally for the Red Sox when they scored four runs and beat reliever Jim Archer (2-1). Bill Monbouquette (5-5) was the winner, giving up a two-run homer by Norm Siebern when the A's scored three unearned runs in the fifth.

Snead Says He Going to Take Rest

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

After winning three straight golf tournaments, coming within a few strokes of topping all the sectional qualifiers for the National Open championship and shooting 14 consecutive rounds in 70 or better, Sam Snead says he's going home to rest.

But you can bet he'll be back in Detroit next week with fire in his eyes, determined to win his first National Open title after nearly 25 years of frustration.

Snead played in his first Open in 1937 and almost won it. He scored 282 at Oakland Hills near Detroit, only to have Ralph Guldahl come in two strokes ahead of him. Since then the title has eluded Sam time after time.

He shot 68-70-138 in Tuesday's sectional qualifying round at the Grosse Ile Club, the best in that section. Then he said he was tired, unhappy about his putting and was going home to rest.

Only a few of the 129 players who qualified in 13 sections Monday and Tuesday managed to better Snead's 36-hole score. Bob Goalby, who topped a big and star-studded field of touring pros at Oklahoma City Tuesday shot 66-68-134. There were five 136s and three 137s at the same place and it took even par, 142, to earn one of the 25 qualifying places. Don January and Bill Bisdorf led the Monday qualifiers with 135s.

The 139 survivors of the sectional rounds will be joined at Oakland Hills next week by 21 players exempt from all qualifying. Two other former Open champions made the grade Tuesday—Ed Furgu, the lame-armed 1954 champ who tied the record for Cleveland's Aurora Club with a second-round 65 and led his field with 138 and Lew Worsham, who shot 139 at Washington. Two others didn't succeed—1936 winner Tony Manero and 1946 winner Lloyd Mangrum.

Says Many Doctors Won't Admit Truth

PITTSBURGH (AP)—To many doctors won't admit they don't know what ails a patient, says a Pittsburgh physician, Dr. Campbell Moses, writing in the current publication of the Allegheny County Medical Society.

Dr. Moses said the most difficult words for some doctors to say are—"I don't know," and warned that the result can be an incorrect diagnosis and serious complications.

Old Age Has Advantages

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Old age has its advantages, says John Ise, professor emeritus of economics at the University of Kansas.

Addressing members of the Golden Medal Club, made up of alumni who graduated at least 50 years ago from the university, Ise said Sunday: "We can read the confession magazines and the scandalous books. We're beyond corruption. And if we are disillusioned we can read the Bible—like cramming for finals."

Sarah Churchill Does It Again

BRIGHTON, England (AP)—Sarah Churchill, actress daughter of Sir Winston Churchill, was fined two pounds—$3.60—Monday for being drunk and disorderly in a Brighton pub.

It was her eighth appearance on such charges in two years. She pleaded guilty and told the magistrate: "I have nothing to say except that I regret it."

National Race Unchanged for Two Top Teams

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati clung to the National League lead with a 7-3 victory over Milwaukee Tuesday night while the Los Angeles Dodgers remained a half-game behind by beating Pittsburgh 8-7.

Last place Philadelphia beat San Francisco 13-9, dropping the third place Giants two games behind with their eighth defeat in 10 games.

St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-2 in the first game of a two-night doubleheader but the second game, called because of curfew, ended in a 3-3, 10-inning tie.

In the American League, Cleveland won its eighth in a row and climbed into first place, by .006 percentage points over Detroit, with a 14-3 romp at Washington while the Chicago White Sox defeated the Tigers 7-1. New York cracked Minnesota 7-2. Baltimore split a two-night pair with Los Angeles, losing the opener 7-3, then winning 2-0 on Chuck Estrada's two-hitter. Boston beat Kansas City 5-3.

Don Demeter and Clay Dalrymple each hit a home run and drove in five runs for the Phillies. The Giants dished hard, scoring five in the ninth. Billy O'Dell (1-3) was the loser, giving up a three-run double by Demeter in the first inning. The Giants got three in the first against Frank Sullivan but reliever Dallas Green then held them in check for his second victory, before he needed Ken Lehman's help in the ninth.

A two-run homer by Gene Freese broke a 1-1 tie for the Reds in the fourth inning against loser Carl Willey (2-3). Gordie Coleman then brought in the deciding run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth. Bob Purkey (6-3) was the winner, but gave up all 13 hits by the Braves and needed a one-inning mop up by reliever Jim Brosnan.

The Dodgers came from behind three times against the Pirates, and beat reliever Elroy Face (2-2) in a three-run seventh, scoring

AF Captains Start Training

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—

Two Air Force captains today began spending 17 days breathing semi-pure oxygen in conditions similar to those at an altitude of 35,000 feet.

Capt. Louis V. Gang, 38, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Capt. Bernard J. Westfall, 30, of Iowa City, Iowa, will be in a simulated space ship cabin.

The experiment at the School of Aerospace Medicine at Brooks Air Force Base is one of a series designed to test man's reaction to atmospheric conditions similar to those he might encounter in space flight.

ing the tying run on a two-out pinch triple by Willie Davis and getting the winner on a pinch double by John Roseboro. Bill Virdon of the Bucs and Norm Sherry of the Dodgers belted three-run homers off starters Roger Craig and Joe Gibbon. Southpaw Johnny Podres (6-1), out since May 15 with arm trouble, was the winner with a save by Larry Sherry.

The Cardinals replaced Milwaukee in fifth place behind the six-hit pitching of Ernie Broglio (6-5). Bill White drove in three runs for the Cards, two with a homer, and broke a 2-2 tie with a sacrifice fly in the third inning. Los Angeles Hobbie (4-6) singled home the Cubs' runs in the second.

Driving May Be a Cause of Cancer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Highway stress, a possible cause of cancer and advice to grandparents are subjects for focus on health.

Stress of Driving

For some people there is a definite wear and tear in driving a car at high speeds or in city traffic.

German researchers found that out of a group of healthy persons, some show great changes in blood pressure and pulse rate after driving at 70 to 80 miles an hour, or after driving in traffic conditions.

In these otherwise healthy persons, the appearance of these changes indicates borderline disorders and may explain some faulty reactions that sometimes result in auto accidents, the researchers said.

Cause of Cancer?

Nickel workers have a high rate of lung cancer and the culprit has been identified as a toxic gas containing nickel which has produced cancer in experimental animals. Now researchers have found that the smoke from both nonfiltered and filtered cigarettes deposits nickel in the lungs. A person who smokes two packs a day for a year inhales three times the amount of nickel needed to produce cancer in rats.

Advice for Gramps

With summertime here and visits to grandparents in order, a University of Michigan psychiatrist has some advice:

Grandparents should keep their hands off in matters calling for discipline of a grandchild. Leave it to the parents. Grandparents are likely either too strict and rigid, or too overly mellowed to be able to help the parents, suggested Dr. Stuart Finch.

And even a 3-year-old is capable of playing grandparent against parent to get what he wants.
